

DrugData

Database of over 100,000 records of drugs literature

DrugData is a fully searchable database of over 100,000 records of drugs literature in the English Language. You can search the database completely free of charge. If you need any help with searching please call the Information Service on 020 7520 7550.

Search DrugData here

(opens in a new window)

Related Links

Information service home Find out how our information service can help you.

For more information please contact the Information Service