

Abstinence

Abstinence means not using drugs.

The term's use varies. It can refer to drug or alcohol treatment programmes that aim to help the person stop using drugs or alcohol for the rest of their lives. It is also used in drug education and prevention and refers to the aim of trying to stop young people ever using drugs.