

Stimulants

Uppers

A stimulant is a drug which speeds up the central nervous system to increase neural activity in the brain.

Examples are amphetamines, cocaine and crack, caffeine and ecstasy. They tend to make people feel more alert and awake and are sometimes called 'uppers'.